ST. JOHNS COUNTY DECLARES ROAD

Between St. Augustine, Hastings and Palatka Officially.

According to the St. Augustine Record of Tuesday the new St. Johns county board of commissioners began its work by making the road between Hastings and Palatka the official county road, declaring it a highway to the Putnam county line and ordering it advertised as such.

"This road," says the Record, "has long since been opened up and improved in many places by the people of Hastings upon their own initiative. The official recognition of the road is the first step toward the ultimate carrying out of the project for a splendid highway from St. Augustine to Palatka, binding St. Johns and Putnam counties together."

The road from this city to Hastings and the St. Johns county line has been provided for.

PALATKA'S CENSUS MADE OFFICIAL

Gives the City a Population of 5,677--Some Dissatisfaction.

At a meeting of the Palatka city council Tuesday night, the aldermen adopted as the official population of the city the enumeration of Mr. Walter McNally and which gives to the city a population of 5,677.

That there is some dissatisfaction is already apparent. The News has seen at least two citizens who declare positively that the enumeration did not count them. Such would be the case no matter who took up the work. Even government enumerators are sometimes criticised. But Mr. McNally is an intelligent gentleman, well acquainted with the city and its needs. His work has undoubtedly been thorough and should be made within the short time allowed for the enumeration.

It has been impossible, up to the present, to get the U. S. census figures for Palatka. That has been the case with all cities of its class. These may, when received, show Mr. McNally's deficiencies, if he has any.

But for the present, at least, the McNally census is the official census of Palatka.

Remember the figures--5,677.

Spanish War Veterans.

There is a movement on foot for the organization of a camp of Spanish-American war veterans for Palatka and Putnam Co. The promoters of the proposed organization urge the co-operation of all former soldiers, and those living in the country can secure information by communication with Capt. John D. Points or J. L. Burt. The initial meeting will probably be held within the next 30 days.

Clerk Hutchinson Entertains.

County Clerk Henry Hutchinson entertained the members of the Board of Trustees for County Bonds, and the outgoing and incoming boards of County Commissioners at dinner on Wednesday. There were 14 at the table.

The table was beautifully decorated, the center piece and leading point of attack being the great 26 pound turkey which was won by Sheriff Kennedy at the New Year's turkey shoot, and which the sheriff sold to Mr. Hutchinson.

Death of Miss Viola Horton.

The community was shocked to hear of the death from pneumonia Sunday morning of Miss Viola Horton, assistant nurse in the Palatka Hospital. Though living here only a year, she was beloved by all who knew her, an efficient nurse, a bright and noble young woman, taken from us in the prime of life. The people of Palatka will sympathize deeply with her sister, Mrs. Williams, and the relatives in Ft. Pierce who mourn her loss.

Putting in the Time.

A gentleman was engaging a general man and telling him what he wanted him to do. "You will have to clean the windows and the boots and the knives and go messages, chop wood, cut short grass, mind the horse and pony, look after the garden and keep the house supplied with vegetables and do any old job that is required, and if suitable you will get 10 shillings a week."

"Is there any clay in the garden?" asked the man.

"What makes you ask that?" asked the gentleman.

"I was thinking I could make bricks in my spare time," said the man.--London Mail.

Making It Easy.

Chimblee told the boss he'd quit this elevator job unless he made it easier. Jimmie--What do you want him to do? Chimblee--Just put on an arrangement so that the elevator will run up and down in front of it.--Puck.

HON. W. A. BLOUNT SPEAKS TONIGHT

Final Meeting of the Campaign Will Be at the Court House

Forget for the time that he is a leading candidate for the U. S. Senate--remember only that Hon. W. A. Blount of Pensacola is one of the few great men and orators of Florida, and that as a prominent Floridian, a learned man, and an eloquent, forceful speaker he is entitled to the courtesy of your presence--your hospitable welcome to the Gem City.

The citizens who do this welcoming act--this act of hospitality and courtesy--no matter what may be their views on the senatorship--will be amply rewarded by hearing one of the greatest speeches in the annals of campaigning in Florida. The News trusts that this eminent Floridian will be greeted by an immense audience. He deserves it.

And the News has an inkling that the "fur will fly" some tonight.

Mr. Blount is just beginning to wake up to the fact that his legislative record is being assailed with an "eleventh hour" attack at the hands of Candidate Bryan.

Mr. Blount will learn the nature of these attacks--these innuendoes--these covert insinuations of Mr. Bryan when he reads this issue of the News. He will answer them tonight--and what he will do to Mr. Bryan will be a plenty. No matter what his enemies may say, the private and public record of W. A. Blount is not of the kind that needs to be hidden from the public gaze--not even in a political campaign.

Blount Club Organized.

Some prominent young men in the city met at the Athletic Association's club rooms on Wednesday evening to organize a "Blount Club." But few of those who encouraged the formation of the club and gave their names as members were present owing to the severe cold. They will, however, be on hand to meet Mr. Blount on his arrival today and will attend his meeting tonight at the court house.

The sentiment in favor of Mr. Blount's nomination has been growing in Palatka and throughout the county, and it is to its chief work will be in the second primary, it being generally conceded that Mr. Blount will be either first or second in the voting throughout the state next Tuesday.

The Bryan Meeting.

Capt. Montclair Broward of Jacksonville, a brother of the late Gov. N. B. Broward, was in Palatka Wednesday night to address the people in the interests of the candidacy of Hon. N. P. Bryan for U. S. Senator.

The meeting was held at the Howell theater and the speaker was introduced by Attorney J. N. Blackwell. "Twas a very cold night and but few attended. Those who did attend heard a man make an eloquent appeal for his friend.

Capt. Broward is a graceful, and at times eloquent, speaker. He has some of the stage mannerisms of the late Governor. The News regrets he could not have had a larger audience. But candidates are not creating much enthusiasm in Palatka this year.

Capt. Broward left for Crescent City Thursday noon, at which place he was billed to speak last night.

Johnny J. Jones' Shows.

The Johnny J. Jones exposition shows and trained animal exposition is daily and nightly giving exhibitions in Palatka all this week and pretty nearly every one in the city is going to see it several times.

You see, Johnny has been in Palatka before and the people know the real worth of his exhibition. His performances are really better than his promises.

The trained wild animal show is probably the best thing of its kind extant. The Royal Bengal tigers, the lions, the bears, wolf and other specimens of the forest and jungles, are the cleanest, healthiest ever shown in this country. They are nearly all perfectly trained and in charge of Capt. Carly Wilson and Mme. Louise Maullin.

The Old Plantation, the Royal Italian band, Capt. Dave Darella's sensational high dive, and the "Leap the Gap" act are all strong features. The balloon ascension each afternoon is only one of the interesting free acts.

This great exposition is worthy the patronage of every person in Palatka. The exposition closes Saturday night. Don't fail to see it. Follow the crowd.

The School Honor Roll.

The following is the list of pupils in the Palatka schools to earn a place on the honor roll for the past month.

Second Grade--Henry Couper, William Tilghman, Martha Coffee, Belle Wing, Roy Bradshaw.

Third Grade--Charles Benbow, Effie Appleby, Charles Andersen, Joseph Austin, Marcus Wilkinson.

Fourth Grade--Inez Stokes, Harrison Hickenlooper.

Sixth Grade--Elizabeth Purstep, Adeline Lee Atwater, Priscilla Ham, Viola Edmondson.

Eighth Grade--Thelma Hyers, Katie Stafford, Ralph Tavel, Clara Wyles, Jonathan Purcell.

Ninth Grade--Helen Tilghman, Alayne Redding, Margaret Willard.

Tenth Grade--Elfrida Colwell.

Twelfth Grade--Virginia Brannon, Beatie LeHardy, Mary Wilkinson, Joel Wilkinson.

Kanner's Store Robbed.

The dry goods, clothing and shoe store of Morris Kanner, at the corner of Lemon and Fourth streets, was entered by the rear door last Monday night by burglars.

The door was pried open with a crowbar. The robber took an overcoat, a suit, leather grip, shoes, hat, handkerchiefs and eight pair of silk socks. Chief Varn has located and recovered most of the stolen goods. They were found under the G. S. & F. depot. He hasn't landed the burglar, but is on the keen scent.

Roberts' cafe, on Main street, near the depot, was also entered the other night. A show-man had left his suit-case there. This and other things were taken. Within a half hour after being notified Chief Varn had recovered the goods and arrested the robber, who proved to be Gunner Long, one of Palatka's colored baseball players. Justice Marshall fixed him with a fine of $25 for larceny.

ALVERS OF SISCO NEW CHAIRMAN

New Board of County Commissioners Took Hold on Wednesday.

The new board of Putnam county commissioners took up the work of government Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

The board organized by electing Commissioner W. C. Alvers of Sisco chairman. It was simple. There was no ballot. Commissioner Perry made the motion that he be elected by acclamation, which was done.

Mr. Alvers smiled. He acted like a man who seemed pleased. Then he said so. Placing his hand on his chest, and facing the members, he said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for this honor and expression of your confidence. I will try to do my duty faithfully and well and deserve your continued confidence."

Then the new board proceeded to congratulate one another.

After taking dinner the board spent the afternoon discussing routine work and getting acquainted with the duties of their office. This the new chairman and the clerk helped them do.

The board as now constituted consists of the following members:

First district--W. C. Alvers, chairman.

Second district--L. L. Moody.

Third district--A. C. Turner.

Fourth district--S. E. Timmons.

Fifth district--E. B. Perry.

Mr. Timmons is the oldest man of the bunch and one of the best known men in the county. He landed in Palatka in December, 1856, and has resided in the county continuously since. He knows the county.

Mr. Perry is physically the biggest man on the board and it is a toss up as to who is the smallest, Alvers or Turner. The chances favor the first named. He weighs about 110 pounds when he is fat, but he hasn't been in condition for some time. Down in the home district he is sometimes referred to as the "old mule"--probably because of his kicking propensities. He did some effective kicking on the outgoing board and that is possibly the reason why he was re-elected by the largest majority given a county commissioner in the late election.

Mr. Perry is one of the best men in the county. He is a farmer and lives in the Melrose section. The people are looking to him hopefully as the making of high-grade commissioner-ships.

Mr. Turner of San Mateo is another good man from whom much is expected. He is a man of sound common sense and knows the needs of the office.

Mr. Moody is too well known in Palatka to need an introduction. He lives at Pencil and was elected as an Independent over the regular democratic nominee--pretty good evidence that he is popular and that much is expected of him--in the way, as Mr. Dooley once said, of "retrenchment and reform."

The new board shows a decided inclination to feel its way, and that it will be conservative is apparent.

The business of the present meeting was only routine. The board, however, made selection of the 300 names from which the jury lists of the year will be made up.

A New Gen'l Superintendent.

Word has been received in this city of the appointment of Mr. S. P. Hollenrake to be General Superintendent of the Ocala Northern Railway, the same to take effect on the 15th inst.

The Ocala Northern is the new road being built by Mr. E. P. Rantz from Ocala to Palatka, is now completed to Ft. McCoy, and coming this way rapidly. Mr. Rantz has assured Palatkans that the road will be completed to Palatka by March or April.

Mr. Hollenrake was for six years the local agent of the G. S. & F. R'y in this city, and one of the most efficient and popular railway officials ever to reside here. His hosts of Palatka friends will be pleased to know of his appointment.

"Smart Set" at The Howell.

Barton and Wiswell's far famed "Smart Set" Company with its capable and acceptable funmakers, vocalists, singers and dancers, headed by Salem Tutt Whitney, is underlined as the next attraction at the Howell Theatre for one night, Tuesday, Jan. 10th. The organization will appear in a brand new and effective musical comedy in three acts, entitled "George Washington Bullion," written by S. H. Dudley with lyrics by Mr. Whitney himself and music by T. L. Corwell. The production easily assumes precedence over any similar offering seen heretofore in some time. Mr. Whitney has been provided with a part suitable to his well known talents, while the supporting cast, a large one, is capable in every department. Foremost in the company are J. Homer Tutt and Daisy Peters Martin, a clever prima donna. Seats are on sale at the Ackerman-Stewart Co.

The Krause Greater Shows.

This really excellent carnival has been unfortunate in Palatka. It was unfortunate in being here at the same time as the Johnny J. Jones people. Palatka isn't big enough for both at once. Had they been a week apart both would have had a good business. The preference seems to have been given to Johnny.

But the Krause shows are great. There isn't a disappointing feature. The shows, however, have only been fairly well attended, and Mr. Krause, one of the best men in the business, has lost money.

If he will bring his excellent carnival and the Banda Roma to Palatka some other time the people will show him that they can and do appreciate a good thing.

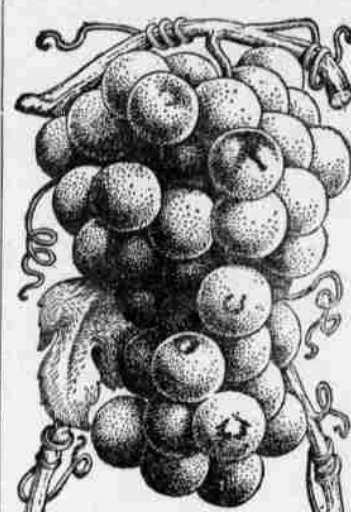

But a small city can have too much, even of good things. It has this week. The show will be here today and tomorrow. Patronage of it will not disappoint.

The Woman's Club.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the residence of Mrs. Dr. George E. Welch Friday, Dec. 30th, 1910.

After the regular business was transacted Mrs. Strunz entertained the ladies with selections from grand opera on her phonograph.

After an afternoon most delightfully spent the club adjourned to meet Jan. 13th in the board of trade rooms, the subjects for the meeting being civics and Federation notes.--Press Reporter.

INTERLACHEN ITEMS.

On Monday evening, the first Monday of the new year, the city council met as usual, and the various matters of interest and improvement received the customary careful consideration of that august body.

The Congregational church held its annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon. A gay party of young people assembled at the home of Mrs. H. T. Mann on Friday evening of last week and had the merriest time of all the year.

Mr. Fred Steele of Chattanooga arrived last week for a visit with the family of Mr. Geo. Gillett.

Mrs. W. D. Brown of Atlanta is a guest of Mrs. E. A. Brush.

News of the death of John A. Brewer, a wealthy property owner here, was received with great regret by the townspeople. Mr. Brewer has spent many winters in Interlachen and is widely and well known. For some years Mr. Brewer's business has prevented a sojourn in Florida, his northern home being in Great Barrington, Mass.

Rev. Knapp was present on Sunday last and officiated at the services in the Episcopal church.

Returning from Palatka on Tuesday and landing here in the midst of a gale of wind and deluge of rain, were Capt. and Mrs. G. W. Anderson and Col. and Mrs. C. L. Barrett.

Chas. McCabe of Decatur, Ill., has been for some days a guest at the Lake View while negotiating for a valuable parcel of real estate, which, if he secures it, will be immediately improved.

Among the newly arrived colonists at the Lake View are C. M. Abney, W. J. Kennedy, Elbert E. Childs and J. I. Brown.

Rev. Jaunty of the M. E. church south, will begin his pastoral work here by holding preaching services next Sunday.

The holiday season over, Misses Baker and Fraser have returned to their schools and are greatly missed by the young people. The school here opens next Monday, after a vacation of two weeks.

At the communion service of the Congregational church last Sunday morning, Rev. Benj. Stock preached the sermon, and he and Mrs. Ballou again delighted the congregation with their music.

Dr. A. M. Steen of Palatka is attending G. E. Gillett, who is on the sick list.

Dyspepsia is our national ailment. Burdock Blood Bitters is the national cure for it. It strengthens stomach membranes, promotes flow of digestive juices, purifies the blood, builds you up.
